

School-Based Instructional Support	IU 13 Reading, Math Specialist
Focuses on additional practice with specific classroom lessons in any subject area, seeking to bring the student to grade level	Provides additional time for reading and math instruction; focuses on strategies beginning at the student's own level, moving to grade level, and then releasing from IU support
Instruction based on practice and successful completion of work needed to understand curriculum	Instruction based on three steps: model, guided practice, independent practice
	Keeps student folders containing diagnostic test data and analysis, progress reports, and individual plans of instruction (IPI)
	Works with teachers to use strategies and information gained from professional development to plan classroom instruction
Can assist teacher with classroom lessons	Is available to plan and co-teach with the classroom teacher
Also works with students who are academically advanced	